

Proud to be First

CONNECTING, SUPPORTING AND GUIDING FIRST-GENERATION COLLEGE STUDENTS THROUGHOUT THEIR COLLEGE JOURNEY.

NOV. 7-11, 2022

First-Generation Celebration Week

The University at Buffalo is proud to recognize our first-generation college students, faculty and staff. In honor of their success and achievements, join us as we recognize them during First-Generation Celebration Week!

Monday, Nov. 7 | Paint-a-bull

5 a.m. outside the Student Union

Monday, Nov. 7 | National First-Generation College Student Week Kickoff

12-3 p.m. in the Student Union

Tuesday, Nov. 8 | Campus Resources Scavenger Hunt

9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Scan the QR code below for participation details.

Tuesday, Nov. 8 | "Triumphs and Trials of the First-Generation College Student Experience" presented by Richard Taylor*

4:30-5:30 p.m. in the Student Union Theater

Tuesday, Nov. 8 | Reception and Book Signing with Richard Taylor*

5:30- 7 p.m. in 210 Student Union

Wednesday, Nov. 9 | Celebrating the First: Student Panel Sharing Stories of Success

12-1 p.m. in 107 Capen Hall

Thursday, Nov. 10 | First-Gen Student Social

8 p.m. in Greiner Hall, C134/135

Friday, Nov. 11 | Student Research Panel

3-4 p.m. in 108 Capen Hall

Friday, Nov. 11 | Proud To Be First Art Installation Reception

4-5:30 p.m. 1st floor of Capen Hall (Between 112 and 130 Capen Hall)

*Sponsored by the Office of Inclusive Excellence, McNair Scholars Program, Student Support Services and Tutoring and Academic Support Services.

 Sponsored by the Office of Student Success and Academic Support.

For more information about the events, scan this QR code or visit buffalo.edu/studentsuccess/succeed/firstgen/celebration-week.

