

University at Buffalo Office of Micro-Credentials

A micro-credential is a small program that allows you to gain relevant skills that are needed in today's workforce. Smaller than a minor, certificate or degree program, micro-credentials showcase your achievements and all it took to get there.

UNDERGRADUATE MICRO-CREDENTIALS FOR CREDIT

Business Practices in the U.S. is a travel experience for School of Management majors and opportunity to learn how you can make an impact in major cities/states across the country.

Requirements: MGG 211, travel, complete mini-case project with presentation, five-minute documentary on LinkedIn, short reflection paper.

Child Advocacy Studies (CAST) is intended to prepare a wide variety of future professionals to recognize and respond to child abuse and neglect.

Requirements: 9 credits: SW 225, SW 235, SW 245 plus program portfolio, integrative reflective statement and written testimonial from program coordinator.

Crime and Justice in a Diverse Society prepares you to work in the criminal justice system.

Requirements: 9 credits: SOC 211 + 2 select SOC electives plus a 5-page paper.

Data Science in Engineering provides you a unique opportunity to gain valuable skills in the area of data science.

Requirements: 6 credits: EAS 345, EAS 346, Data Science Internship and Capstone Activity.

Gender and Globalization empowers you to think critically about power, inequality and marginalization within a global context.

Requirements: 9 credits: GGS 205 + 2 select GGS electives plus an integrative final project (paper, poster, or presentation) and a policy brief.

Intercultural and Global Competency is an opportunity to assess and apply the competencies gained in a global programs experience, virtually or in person and outside the United States.

Requirements: completion of 3 credit global experience course with a country-specific team project, journal and reflection.

Prominence in Leadership is a self-managed program for School of Management Honors Students that that will help you develop your leadership competency.

Requirements: 9 credits: MGB 359, MGB 360, MGB 361 (1 credit each), presentation, 6 credits flexible of electives.

Understanding Diversity through Sociology allows you to signal to future employers an in-depth specialization in the study of diversity from a sociological lens. Requirements: 9 credits: SOC 211 + 2 select SOC electives plus a paper response to one of two prompts and a diversity statement for an employer.

Talk with your academic advisor for more information or scan the QR code to see what undergraduate offerings are available.

buffalo.edu/micro-credentials | micro@buffalo.edu