

PAROLE INJUSTICE IN NEW YORK STATE SCREENING: THE INTERVIEW

RAPP and the University at Buffalo School of Law's Criminal Justice Advocacy Clinic are partnering for a screening of The Interview.

The Interview is a 20-minute documentary that focuses on the injustices plaguing the parole system in New York State. The documentary shares the stories of people who have been through the parole process and of the people who administer it.

The screening will include opening remarks and a post-screening discussion and Q&A with local activist Jerome Wright and other former incarcerated individuals.
