

Proud to be First

CONNECTING, SUPPORTING AND GUIDING FIRST-GENERATION COLLEGE STUDENTS THROUGHOUT THEIR COLLEGE JOURNEY.

NOV. 4-8, 2024

First-Generation Celebration Week

The University at Buffalo is proud to honor our first-generation college students, faculty and staff. Join us as we recognize their success and achievements during First-Generation Celebration Week!

Monday, Nov. 4 | Paint-a-bull.
7 a.m. outside the Student Union

Monday, Nov. 4 | National first-generation college student day kickoff.
11 a.m.-1 p.m. on the first floor of Capen Hall (Between 112 and 130 Capen Hall)

Monday, Nov. 4 | DR. Stephen Santa-Ramirez presents "From North Philly to Faculty: First-Gen & Fierce!" Reception to follow sponsored by the Office of Inclusive Excellence.
4-5 p.m. presentation in 330 Student Union. 5-6 p.m. reception in 235 Student Union

Tuesday, Nov. 5 | Celebrating the First: Student panel shares stories of success.
12-1 p.m. in 235 Student Union

Wednesday, Nov. 6 | First-Gens Like Me: Lunch with alumni, faculty and staff.
12-1:30 p.m. in 145 Student Union

Wednesday, Nov. 6 | Honors College Student Showcase
2-3 p.m. in 107 Capen Hall

Thursday, Nov. 7 | First-generation Jacobs School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences tour and discussion.
1-3 p.m. A bus from North Campus will leave Flint Loop at 12:30 p.m.

Thursday, Nov. 7 | First-generation student social.
7-8 p.m. in B116 Greiner Hall, North Campus

Friday, Nov. 8 | First Generation Research Symposium.
3-4 p.m. on the first floor of Capen Hall (by the pillar near One World Café)

Friday, Nov. 8 | Proud To Be First reception.
4-5 p.m. 1st floor of Capen Hall (between 112 and 130 Capen Hall)

Sponsored by Alumni Engagement, Campus Living, The Graduate School, Honors College, McNair Scholars Program, Office of Inclusive Excellence, Student Support Services and Tutoring Academic Support Services.

For more information about the events, scan this QR code or visit buffalo.edu/studentsuccess/succeed/firstgen/celebration-week.

