The 2020 GOLD Award

PURPOSE:

To recognize a graduating UB Law School student who has demonstrated leadership skills in enhancing the mission and reputation of the law school.

QUALIFICATIONS:

The nominee must be a graduating student from the University at Buffalo School of Law. An application must be completed by the person nominating the student or by the student. The award is not based on grades or any activities completed as a part of the student's coursework.

NOMINATION PROCESS:

Nominees will be taken from law students, administrators, faculty, Law Alumni Association members, and GOLD Group members. A student can nominate him/herself for the award. Each nominator/nominee will complete an application wherein the nominee's activities will be listed and a short essay submitted on why the person should be selected for this award.

SELECTION COMMITTEE:

The award recipient will be selected by an Ad Hoc Committee consisting of: a minimum of two (2) members of the GOLD Group Board of Directors; Vice Dean for Student Affairs (Bernadette Gargano); Vice Dean for Social Justice Initiatives (Melinda Saran); Vice Dean for Career Services (Lisa Patterson); the Executive Director of the Law Alumni Association (Ilene Fleischmann); and the GOLD Group president (Meghan A. Corcoran).

AWARD:

The recipient's name will be added to a plaque displayed in the Law School Law Library. The recipient will receive their choice of a commemorative desk clock or the cash equivalent. The award will be acknowledged at Commencement.

SOLICITATION OF CANDIDATES:

The award will be publicized in the spring at the Law School. The GOLD Group will accept applications on a year-round basis.
